1. The Portuguese Government has advised Macao officials to sign mutual assistance pacts with all countries that have colonies near Macao. The pacts are to accord with terms of the Colonial Alliance of 1936 among Britain, France, the Netherlands and Portugal.
2. Pedro Jose Lobo, head of the Macao economic bureau, completed negotiations in Hong Kong with the French consul for a pact with the French in Indochina. On 18 December in Macao a representative of the French Far East administrative commission signed the pact.
